AMENDMENT NO. 2

Amend Senate Bill No. 1079 by inserting the following language as a new section immediately preceding the effective date section and by renumbering such effective date section accordingly:

SECTION __. (a) On or before September 15, 1988, a county or municipal legislative body may by resolution or ordinance call an advisory referendum on whether the annual salaries for members of the General Assembly should be raised from twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) to sixteen thousand five hundred dollars ($16,500). Upon approval by the county or municipal legislative body, the county election commission shall call an advisory referendum to be conducted at the next regularly scheduled county-wide or municipality-wide general election occurring forty-five (45) or more days after such approval by the legislative body. The question to be placed on the ballot shall read as follows:

Should the annual salary for members of the Tennessee General Assembly be raised from twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) to sixteen thousand five hundred dollars ($16,500)?

YES__ NO__

(b) On or before September 15, 1988, as an alternative to a county or municipality by resolution or ordinance calling an advisory referendum, a petition signed by the residents of a county or municipality, as the case may be, equal or exceeding a number amounting to ten percent (10%) of the votes cast for sheriff at the last preceding August general election shall require the county election commission to conduct an advisory referendum by placing the question stated in subsection (a) on the ballot at the next regularly scheduled county-wide or municipality-wide election occurring forty-five (45) days or more following submission of such petition. Such petition shall be addressed to the county election commission of such county, or county in which such municipality is located, and shall read substantially as follows:

"We, registered voters of _____ (here insert name of county or municipality as the case may be), do hereby request the holding of an advisory referendum on the question of whether the annual salary for members of the Tennessee General Assembly should be raised from twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) to sixteen thousand five hundred dollars ($16,500). Such petition may be in two (2) or more parts.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1987--42nd LEGISLATIVE DAY

(c) The provisions of this act shall not be construed as requiring voter approval as a requisite for implementation of the increase in annual salary provided by the provision of this act and every referendum conducted under the authority of this act shall be deemed to be strictly advisory in nature and effect.

Mr. Purcell moved that Senate Joint Resolution No. 143 be concurred in.

Mr. Buck moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Joint Resolution 143 by adding the following to the end of the first resolving clause:

Such study shall also include an examination of and possible solutions to the problem created by an opinion of the Attorney General that states it is a conflict of interest for an attorney member of the general assembly to be compensated by the state for representing an indigent person because the member may vote on the bill that appropriates funds for the compensation of indigent counsel. Particular attention should be paid to the effect this opinion has had upon the quality and availability of indigent counsel in rural areas and whether the need for competent counsel outweighs the possible conflict of interest created by representation by a member of the general assembly.

On motion, the amendment was adopted.

Thereupon, Senate Joint Resolution No. 143, as amended, was concurred in by the following vote:

Ayes .....	95
Noes .....	0
